RAFT UPDATES

The Residential Assistance for Families in Transition Program (RAFT) is designed to allow eligible households to receive a maximum of $4,000/year in flexible funds to help avoid or exit homelessness. Typical uses for RAFT include funds for rent, mortgage, or utility arrears, first and last months' rent, startup costs, moving expenses, related household expenses, and/or employment-related transportation costs. RAFT provides short-term financial assistance to households with incomes at or below 50% of area median income (AMI). At least 50% the funds are dedicated to households with incomes below 30% AMI. RAFT is a program of the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) and is administered by 11 regional agencies across the Commonwealth.

RESIDENTIAL ASSISTANCE FOR FAMILIES IN TRANSITION (RAFT) PROGRAM AND COVID-19 STATE OF EMERGENCY

The state now has a new special $5 million fund within RAFT to serve households facing a COVID-19-related housing crisis due to a loss of wages or increase in expenses (e.g. medical expenses).

There may be additional funding and expanded eligibility in the coming weeks and months.
